

Statement on the review and update process of “Understanding Episodes of High Airborne Particulate Matter in Iowa”

Comments and questions regarding this report are encouraged. Unless comments are requested to be held anonymous, they will be recorded in this appendix document.

Updated by Charles Stanier, February 21, 2009

- The draft document (version December 22, 2008) was reviewed by all coauthors.
- The December draft was provided to members of the bistate regional commission for review in December of 2008.
 - a. 2 very minor comments were received regarding wording. No significant concerns or comments were identified at this review stage.
- The December draft was provided to Sean Fitzsimmons of IDNR for review in late January, 2009. No comments have been received as of February 6, 2009.
- Final editing of the December draft was done in early February, 2009 by Charles Stanier, Greg Carmichael, Morgan Brown, and Alicia Pettibone.
- Comments of Sean Fitzsimmons were received in February 2009. Those comments required no changes to the document.
- The final document was presented on February 20, 2009.

Please address any future questions or comments to charles-stanier@uiowa.edu