

Rockwell Collins
University of Iowa Student Leadership Retreat
Friday and Saturday, April 7 & 8, 2017
Application Form

The Student Leadership Retreat is a 2-day commitment held in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Rockwell Collins covers all expenses. You will have the opportunity to hear from Managers at Rockwell regarding leadership development and informally gather information from some Rockwell employees. In addition, you will learn about yourself and others via the Golden Personality Profile as well as wrestle with case studies presented by leaders from a variety of backgrounds.

You must be available from 8:00 am on Friday, April 7 through 5:00 pm on Saturday, April 8. We will spend the night at The Hotel Kirkwood Center.

Type your answers to all the questions in brief paragraphs. You will also need to include a copy of your resume. Please submit your applications either by email to Nancy Schneider (nancy-j-schneider@uiowa.edu) or submit a paper copy to the Student Development Center in 3124 SC by Tuesday, February 21 by 11:59 pm. Please direct questions to Nancy Schneider @ nancy-j-schneider@uiowa.edu.

1. Participating in the annual Student Leadership Retreat is a very prestigious honor that only 12 engineering students experience each year. Why should the committee consider you?

2. Tell us about a time that you were leading or responsible for a group activity and it did not go well. What did you learn from that experience?

The University of Iowa prohibits discrimination in employment, educational programs, and activities on the basis of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or associational preference. The University also affirms its commitment to providing equal opportunities and equal access to University facilities.
