

Engineering Tutoring – Review Schedule – Fall 2019

Engineering Tutoring offers exam reviews for many of the courses engineering students take in their first three semesters in the Engineering curriculum. Below are the scheduled Engineering Tutoring reviews for fall 2019. Check-in for reviews begins 15 minutes prior to the review at the location of the review. All reviews begin at 6:30 unless otherwise noted. Please be sure to sign-in for each review you attend. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to join the review session.

Please note that date and location are subject to change. Look for emails from Engineering Tutoring.

Review materials will be shared with the instructors following the review to share at their discretion. Please plan accordingly to have a peer take notes if you are unable to attend.
